

I'm accepted.....what's next????

This is one of the most commonly asked questions by new students, so this page has been designed to help you through the many steps involved in getting ready to begin your studies.

International students should visit the International Student Services website for more information on issues such as applying for a student VISA, coming to campus, etc.

Right after you receive your acceptance letter from the Graduate School.....

- Accept your admission offer at your Graduate School Admission Account. Be sure to review all stipulations of your acceptance.
- Review the Graduate School online orientation as a guide for incoming graduate students. Or register for the Space Studies on-campus orientation held prior to the start of each fall semester.
- Claim your NDUS account.
- Check your e-mail account.
- Submit mandatory Health History & Immunization form – online students are exempt.

Before you begin.....

- For online classroom access, log in to eZ LMS  using your Campus Connection username and password.
- Use the Space Studies course schedule posted online to review upcoming courses.
- Register for classes at CampusConnection. Review the navigation help for more info.
- Order textbooks. Textbooks are available at the UND Bookstore. Students may purchase textbooks from the UND Bookstore or an online bookseller of their choice, using the textbook requirements posted in the course description within the class schedule.
- Request access to the online classroom in eZ.
- Test the chat room access in the online classroom once your pending request is approved.
- Apply for on-campus housing if needed.
- Apply for meal plan if needed.
- Review Space Studies Student Handbook found in the documents section.

When you begin the semester.....

- Apply for a student ID card – optional for online students.
- Purchase a student parking permit for on-campus parking.
- Pay tuition. Obtain your tuition charges via CampusConnection.
- Review Space Studies News at the bottom of our homepage.
